

ACTIVITY 31

Use the words in the list below to complete the sentences.

1. In the South African Police Service a _____ is an officer in senior management.
2. When the building of the new skyscrapers is finished, they will _____ the view from our window.
3. A _____ amount of time was spent preparing the choir for the competition.
4. The _____ was expelled from the wedding party at last.
5. An _____ clause most commonly functions as a question.
6. She inherited an _____ of land, which she turned into a poultry farm.
7. Take a deep breath and completely _____ yourself.
8. She was an older _____ who lived with seven cats.
9. They coated the iron roofing sheets with _____ to curtail rust.
10. A _____ is a solid shape whose four surfaces are triangles.
11. The _____ children were given detention by the teacher.
12. Speaking to the crowd about Christ was the only mission of the roving _____.
13. We read _____ accounts of South Africa from the early 1900s.
14. We learned in science that metal is a good conductor of electricity, but plastic is a _____ and will stop the current.
15. The judge imposed _____ sentences totalling 10 years for the attack on the learner.
16. The audience burst into _____ laughter.
17. We took our dog to the _____ for a check-up.
18. As you go further north, you will notice a _____ change of climate.
19. References to the notes are given in _____.
20. All _____ is due to circulating electric currents.

Words: considerable recusant interrogative zinc magnetism lout gradual evangelist contemporary veterinarian superscript boisterous eccentric tetrahedron brigadier acre resistor concurrent submerge obscure